II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

- Federal question Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

A. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is a Federal Question

①

I am subjected along with all other registered sex offenders to face Vengeful, additional punishment of registration under the N.C sex offender registry. The N.C sex offender registry violates my Country's funding documents and U.S constitution by singling out a specific category of offenders for unfair ; unconstitutional punishment. The N.C sex offender registry has metastasized violating my constitutional rights of due process, the right to be free from double jeopardy and the right to avoid cruel and unusual punishment. The N.C sex offender registry violates my due process rights and specifically the tenet of presumption of innocence, or the idea that a person is innocent until proven guilty. The N.C sex offender registry makes courts presume that an individual such as myself, has the propensity to commit a certain type of crime in the future and therefore I must be scrupulously supervised. The 5th Amendment element of due process known as "double jeopardy" protects me and all citizens of N.C from being prosecuted for the same offense twice. It also prohibits multiple punishments for the same crime. Since I have already completed my sentence on October 4th 2013; The N.C sex offender registry wants to repeatedly punish me detrimentally. The N.C sex offender registry inflicts secondary punishments on me such as the inability to qualify for housing and my increased difficulties of securing employment since my sentence completion date. The N.C sex offender registry effectively removes re-entry resources not just for Bryan Lee James but for all registered sex offenders in N.C. The N.C sex offender registry repeated punishments violates my 8th Amendment rights because it imposes cruel and unusual punishment.

Since my sentence completion date of October 4th 2013, I have had to provide my name, address, photo, employment status and DNA
sample which should be considered vindictive since incarceration should have been classified as punishment and a deterrence, so any subsequent punishment can only be vindictive. Protecting the constitutional rights of myself and other sex offenders is of the up most importance for protecting our freedom.
